What does it mean to you?

Motorists who used to buy regular grade gasoline are stepping up to this new class of gasoline at the price of regular!

New Shell Gasoline was developed to fill the needs of those engines which 88% of present-day regular grade gasoline fails to satisfy.

That is why it gives you so many premium features—like TCP* additive, recognized as the greatest gasoline development in 31 years. It prevents spark plug "miss," the major cause of power loss. Why not see your Shell Dealer?

Loaded with these premium features:

TCP neutralizes the deposits that cause spark plug "miss" and rob you of power.

HIGHER OCTANE New Shell Gasoline is higher in octane than the top premiums of only a short time ago. This gives you added assurance of freedom from knock under all driving conditions.

NEW VOLATILITY The volatility of New Shell Gasoline is adjusted 6 times a year to suit the prevailing weather in your area—something you never had with old-type regular grades. This means easy starting and freedom from vapor lock.

ANTI-RUST Rust is a greater problem today so New Shell Gasoline contains a special rust inhibitor all year 'round.

Farm Income Dip Forecast in 1959 by Agriculture Dept.

Washington—A 5 to 10 percent dip in farm income in 1959 was forecast Tuesday by the Agriculture Department's market-forecasting service.

This would offset in part a 20 percent increase in income being received by farmers this year. This year's net realized income—the amount left after paying production costs—is being estimated at 13 billion dollars compared with $10,800,000,000 last year.

The service said farm production next year could reasonably be expected to be close to this year's record level.

But farm prices, it said, are likely to average lower. Price declines were forecast for hogs, poultry, eggs, cotton, corn and other feed grains, and possibly oilseed crops.

In addition, net income is expected to be reduced by a further increase in farm-production costs. Prices paid by farmers for individual goods and services used in production, as well as taxes and interest charges, are expected to climb still higher.

Also, there will be a downturn of $700,000,000 in Government payments under the existing acreage reserve of the soil-bank program.

Farm-production outlays increased about 5 percent this year.

Mrs. Mary Ray of Murray spent the weekend with her son and family.

From my front porch
By CARL HELM

The sound of sirens is sometimes a howl, sometimes a wail. But it can be a joyous sound, to herald a happy event!

So it was when they blew on a recent day in my hometown. Joyfully, blending with the ringing of bells. A noteworthy occasion, a happy one, as side by side the president of the corporation and the head of the union stood cheering and waving their hats! The Studebaker people were rolling off the production line the first of their 1959 cars.

It was a day of high excitement and rightly so, for this is the "new dimension in motoring" that my neighbors are sure will catch the whole country's fancy. A smaller, stylish, economical car; roomy, comfortable, easily parked; the Lark by Studebaker, made by proud and skilled craftsmen.

Eighty-five per cent of these people own or are buying their own homes. Their future and that of their children is tied into the bright promise of the remarkable car they are making. No wonder the whole town was excited!

Mrs. Bill Henry Is Speaker at Session Of Junior Women

Mrs. Bill Penry, fourth vice president of the Federation of Junior Woman's Clubs, was the guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Benton Junior Woman's Club held Nov. 6 in the dining room at Kentucky Dam Village.

Mrs. Penry spoke on the work that the junior clubs were doing in Kentucky, and told of her experience while visiting the orphanage, which is a project of the junior clubs. Each junior club of the state selects a child at the orphanage at Christmas time to send gifts to.

The table was covered with a white cut-work linen cloth and held three arrangements of yellow mums, flanked with brown candles. Small corsages of mums were used as favors.

Mrs. Penry was presented a corsage and a present by the club.

Attending the dinner were five new members, Mesdames Harold Morris, Rollie Henson, Jerry Riley, Bobby L. Hendrickson and Bobby Elkins. Others attending were Mesdames Price Napier, Joe Brandon, Harry Carpenter, Jack Cole, Bobby Putteet, Joe Brooks Prince, Gene Phillips, Coy Cresson, Louis Farley, Bill Green, James Holland, Harold Inman, Charles Jackson, Harold King, T. F. LeVan, Dale Morgan, Joe Morris Jr., Jim Owens, Horace Sledd, J. S. Thompson, James Wyatt, Carl O'Daniel, W. J. Brien Jr. and Mrs. Penry.

Mrs. L. L. Egner and Mr. and Mrs. Colman Hawkins visited D. Hawkins in Mayfield Sunday.

SCHOOLMATES — Easy-care cottons go to school this fall. Designer Stephanie Koret mates a blouse top with a slim skirt, both of drip-dry cotton corduroy.

The kitchen can be the gayest room in the house by merely adding a few touches. Paint the walls one color and the ceiling a deeper matching tone or even a different color. If there's space, cover one of the walls with a peg board fitted with hooks and clips that hold pots and pans as well as shelves for small items. Paint an old ladder the color of the walls and use it as a display rack for interesting dish towels. Clear glass candy and chemical jars can hold staples. A quick once over with a sponge dipped in a Spic and Span solution keeps walls and shelves sparkling clean. Best of all, this solution does not need rinsing.

While the finished floor may be the last thing a builder puts in a house, it's the first thing to consider in decorating. In selecting a floor covering, remember you'll probably live with it a long time so look for one with a smooth, durable surface that wears well and is easy to keep clean. There's an impressive array of colors and designs in linoleum, vinyl and rubber tile and other washable hard-surface floorings which are a breeze to keep "Spic and Span" clean. Since rooms in today's smaller houses have split personalities—a TV room may also double as a guest room or study—it's wise to select flooring that will take a lot of punishment and always look fresh for company. Choose the floor covering that is just what you need and want.

Go to the rescue of an old linoleum floor and paint one section at a time with good deck enamel. While it is still wet, spatter it with a contrasting color and let the colors flow together for a marbled effect. After it is thoroughly dry, apply a coat of varnish, then wax. Upkeep is easy with the special no-rinse cleaner for all hard-surface floorings and painted surfaces. A quick wipe with a mop dipped in the no-rinse cleaner solution is all that's required.
